Dear Bibliodrama friends

Here comes another newsletter from the network along with greetings for the New Year. As you may imagine much of the information in this edition is affected in one way or another with the impact of the Covid pandemic. We hope that in your various countries the situation is improving and that face to face meetings will become easier to organise if they are not already.

In the meantime we would like to invite you to another online coffee and conversation:

We want to meet again in our virtual online Bibliodrama Café on Wednesday 2nd February at 19.30 Paris time.

We will have time to exchange about ideas how to maintain the contact with people who were joining our live workshops. How can you keep these contacts warm? What can you do to motivate them to come back once we are able to organize the real work again? And of course there will be time to chat about what ever you want.

If you want to join us: please let us know using the link. <https://forms.gle/>

If you have an idea of your own to talk about, you are free to let us know... “

One of the planned and advertised courses that was hoped to take place soon has had to be postponed.

‘Mary in the Bible and the Koran’

This course due to take place in Leichenstein at the end of January has now been re-planned to take place beginning on April 26th at Haus Gutenberg, Leichtenstein.

It is actively looking for new participants!

For further information and to register please follow this link

Mary+

The course in Lithuania from March 8th to 12th is still hoped to happen on those dates

This will look at Mary, plus some of the other Marys in the gospels.

2022 EBN Annual Workshop

‘Trans Formation’ - Wuppertal from August 17th to 21st

Details about the annual workshop as well as the invitation to register and application form come with this newsletter as two separate files.

Please note the dates for making final payment for registration which is March 31st.

There may also be the possibility of being able to engage via Zoom for some parts if it is not possible or desirable to attend in person. If this is something you would like to explore please contact Burkhard Geise who will see what may be possible.

Currently we have no information regarding the 2023 annual workshop. We will circulate this as it becomes available.

Next CROSSBORDER education

As already advertised, the next Basic Course planned as a two-week course in Bromma, Sweden will take place from 27 June - 9 July 2022. The information about this can be found on the EBN website https://www.bibliodrama-ebn.eu/uploads/1/3/5/9/135914146/invitation_european_bibliodrama_basic_training__invitation.pdf

The Advanced Course is still planned for 2023/24 and will be led by Wolfgang and Andrea. See the link above for the information as it becomes available.

That's all for now. Please let us know if there is information you would like to have included in a forthcoming newsletter. Blessings and stay well!
